Messe Düsseldorf Shanghai Postpones All in CARAVANING 2020 to September 25-27, 2020

Due to the current situation of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) epidemic worldwide and the complicated travel situation for international customers, Messe Düsseldorf Shanghai is postponing All in CARAVANING 2020 - China's leading trade fair for motorhomes and caravans from June 12-14, 2020 to September 25-27, 2020. The exhibition venue remains at Beijing Etrong International Exhibition & Convention Center.

China has been constantly consolidating and expanding the positive trend in preventing and controlling the epidemic. On May 8, The Joint Prevention and Control Mechanism of the State Council issued a guideline on regular prevention and control of COVID-19, which clearly stated that, under the premise of implementing effective prevention and control measures, trade fair organizers are allowed to hold conferences and exhibitions. By shifting the trade fair dates, we are actively complying with the policies made by the government.

The customers' health is always our top priority. At this special moment, we are working closely with partners and related authorities to evaluate the latest epidemic situation and will timely release the updated information. In the meantime, we will strengthen the invitation of trade visitors and plan additional concurrent events to present an even higher-level international trade fair for the industry.

We thank you for your understandings and continued supports to AIC. The exhibitor's registration and visitor's pre-registration will both stay valid for the new dates. For more information, please visit www.aicshow.com.

See you in Beijing on September 25-27, 2020. Stay Healthy!
